

I was laid off because of Covid and because I was a School Employee in IT, I had months of investigations before I was able to get unemployment since I was let go in July. Thank god I was one of the lucky ones who had savings to cover rent, food and other utilities.