

HB 2389

Oregon's current forest privilege tax on merchantable forest products should be extended in its current form, which appropriately uses the best available science to set the tax rate. I oppose HB 2389, which proposes to make it permanent and index it for inflation.

Please vote no on HB 2389