

Measure 11, is absolutely wrong. Cases should be judged on an individual basis. Situations and people are unique and should be treated individually not with a cookie cutter sentencing. It costs taxpayers more money to incarcerate people for longer than they deserve, and they could be working and therefore paying taxes .