

Benefits of the Energy Innovation Act:

Puts a predictable price on carbon

It uses the money to provide low and middle income families an economic boost

It returns the money back to families so they have financial relief from an increasing price on carbon

Is transparent and simple to implement

I support this Act and hope Congress moves forward with it.