

This bill would foster an unbalanced taxation method, where forest products are taxed in a way that farm products are not.