

This tax is not appropriate considering we just had some major fires that caused substantial financial hardship on forest owners... we do not need to be kicked while we are down.