

I strongly oppose this bill. This is the wrong way to generate revenue from a source that already pays taxes. This will only make matters worse in communities and counties that are already struggling from other timber related regulations that have literally gutted many small rural towns across Oregon.