

My wife and I own some forestland as an investment & future retirement income. We have worked hard to plant & keep competing brush down so seedling can survive. We are dealing with repartian setbacks that have cutback our harvestable acreage since we have acquired the forestland. Also to log these tracts we will be dealing with environmental laws that keep harvestable profits shrinking. My wife and I oppose any new taxes on forestland. William & Glenda Hales.