

Glenda and William Hales oppose the timber harvest tax. We have paid taxes on this property since acquiring them and when we harvest the timber we will be paying road fees and logging and replanting and harvest taxes which will cut into any profits we get for our efforts to harvest timber.