

This has made senses in every other state, you know when it hot outside motorcycles only cool off when they move , trust me we don't need any problems at rush hours with broken down anybody .so this is a safety matter if we are allowed to split a lane we could safety move through traffic with no problems.