

The time has come for this to be made law. It helps traffic flow, saves motorcyclist's lives from rear end collisions, cuts fuel usage, and possibly encourages others to consider motorcycles as a viable commuting option.