

I am a motorcyclist and have lived in Portland for over twenty years. I support motorcycle lane sharing because it improves traffic flow and convenience for everyone, it improves safety for motorcyclists, and it is an ecological improvement both in reducing motorcycle idling and encouraging motorcycling as an improvement to congestion.