

I urge this committee to support motorcycle lane-sharing. As a life long Oregonian and motorcyclist, I use this strategy regularly in order to place myself in the safest place in the traffic stream. Lane sharing is used around the world as a common sense way to integrate bikes and automobiles. It's time that Oregon legalized this practical, efficient way to improve safety and reduce energy consumption on highways.

Thank you for your consideration.