

There is zero reason to slip in that interpreters be mandated for any medical procedure. Let's leave medical decisions to people and their doctors.