

Lane sharing is perfectly safe when done properly, and decreases congestion, and greatly reduces the risk of being rear ended by distracted drivers for the motorcyclist. This practice is done right here in California, and all over the rest of the world, it's time for us to recognize the value and enact policy to allow this under a set of common sense rules asap in my opinion.
Thank you for your time, Benjamin Walls