

My mid-thirties children have accused me of not doing enough to help prevent climate change. The least I can do is stand up here to say that we need the health of our forests to do that small part to protect the earth. This bill would help accomplish that end and I do this for my children and grandchildren yet to come. Thank you.

Sarah Rosenberg