

I agree with Clint Smith when he writes that, "The bodies of people in America's prisons are counted in the design of our political infrastructure, but their voices are not." I ask that you restore the dignity of incarcerated Americans by allowing them to participate in elections.