

I want to push for support of this bill as a way to equalize and promote practitioners of the BIPOC community in becoming licensed. We have a significant underrepresentation of BIPOC therapist, which I believe is a direct reflection of the systems of oppression that have historically and currently maintain power for white therapists and institutional racism. This bill is a step toward deconstructing those systems and supporting racial justice.