

My sons lost their home and all their belongings in the Almeda fire. They found housing and have struggled to keep up with their housing and other expenses. They have been told repeatedly that they don't qualify for any of the various programs offered by FEMA and other organizations. I find it heartbreaking to watch and I can't step in to help them find adequate housing so they can move into a nice, decent place for them and their dogs.

Heidi Dominguez
Medford , Oregon