34 nishes information to a consumer reporting agency, as provided in 15 U.S.C. 1681s-2, or a
35 user of a consumer report, as defined in 15 U.S.C. 1681a(d), to the extent that the consumer

1 reporting agency, the person that furnishes information to a consumer reporting agency or
2 the user of a consumer report engages in activities that are subject to regulation under the
3 federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.;

4 “(ii) A financial institution, an affiliate or a nonaffiliated third party, all as defined in 15
5 U.S.C. 6809, to the extent that the financial institution, affiliate or nonaffiliated third party
6 is subject to regulation under Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 U.S.C. 6801 to 6809,
7 and regulations adopted under Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act;

8 “(iii) A business entity that collects information about a resident individual if the resi-
9 dent individual is or was:

10 “(I) A customer, subscriber or user of the business entity’s goods or services;

11 “(II) An employee or agent of the business entity or is in a contractual relationship with 12 the business entity;

13 “(III) An investor in the business entity;

14 “(IV) A donor to the business entity; or 15 “(V) In another relationship with the business entity the nature of which is similar to 16 the relationships described in this sub-subparagraph; or

17 “(iv) A business entity that performs services for, acts on behalf of or acts as an agent
18 of a business entity described in sub-subparagraph (iii) of this subparagraph.

19 “(d) ‘Resident individual’ means a natural person who resides in this state.

20 “(2)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, a data broker may not
21 collect, sell or license brokered personal data within this state unless the data broker first
22 registers with the Department of Consumer and Business Services as provided in subsection
23 (3) of this section.

24 “(b) A data broker may collect, sell or license brokered personal data without registering
25 with the department if the collection, sale or licensing involves only:

26 “(A) Providing publicly available information that is related to a resident individual’s
27 business or profession;

28 “(B) Providing publicly available information as part of a service that provides alerts for 29 health or safety purposes;

30 “(C) Providing information that is lawfully available from federal, state or local govern-
31 ment records;

32 “(D) Publishing, selling, reselling, distributing or providing digital access to journals,
33 books, periodicals, newspapers, magazines, news media or educational, academic or instruc-
34 tional works;

35 “(E) Developing or maintaining an electronic commerce service or software;

36 “(F) Providing directory assistance or directory information services as, or on behalf of,
37 a telecommunications carrier; or

38 “(G) Selling the assets of a business entity or a part of a business entity a single time, 39 or only occasionally, as part of a transfer of control over the assets that is not part of the 40 ordinary conduct of the business entity or a part of the business entity.

41 “(3) To register with the department, a data broker shall:

42 “(a) Submit on a form and in a format the department specifies:

43 “(A) The name of the data broker;

44 “(B) The street address and telephone number of the data broker; and 45 “(C) The data broker’s primary website and electronic mail address.

1 “(b) Pay a fee in an amount the department specifies by rule. The department shall set
2 the fee in an amount that is sufficient, when aggregated, to pay the costs of administering
3 the registration program.

4 “(c) Include with the application form a declaration in which the data broker:

5 “(A) States whether resident individuals may opt out of all or a portion of the data
6 broker’s collection, sale or licensing of the resident individuals’ brokered personal data;

7 “(B) Identifies which of the data broker’s activities of collecting, selling or licensing
8 brokered personal data a resident individual may opt out of or which portion of the resident
9 individual’s brokered personal data the resident individual may opt out of providing or per-
10 mitting the data broker to collect, sell or license;

11 “(C) Describes the method by which a resident individual may exercise the choices de-
12 scribed in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph; and

13 “(D) States whether a resident individual may authorize another person to exercise the 14 choice described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph on the resident individual’s behalf
15 and, if so, how to do so.

16 “(4) If a data broker complies with the requirements set forth in subsection (3) of this 17 section, the department shall approve the registration. A registration under this section is 18 valid until December 31 of the year in which the department approves the registration.

19 “(5) The department may approve and renew a registration under this section by means
20 of an agreement with the Nationwide Multistate Licensing System and may, by rule, conform
21 the practices, procedures and information that the department uses to approve or renew a
22 registration to the requirements of the Nationwide Multistate Licensing System.

23 “(6) The department shall make the information that business entities submit for regis-
24 tration under this section publicly available on or by means of the department’s website.

25 “(7)(a) The department may impose a civil penalty:

26 “(A) In an amount that does not exceed $500 for each of a data broker’s violations of a
27 requirement under this section or each violation of a rule the department adopted under this 28 section; or

29 “(B) In the case of a continuing violation, in the amount of $500 for each day in which 30 the violation continues.

31 “(b) The total amount of penalties that the department imposes on a data broker may 32 not exceed $10,000 during any calendar year.

33 “(8) The department may adopt rules that are necessary to implement the provisions of 34 this section.

35 “SECTION 2. (1) Section 1 of this 2022 Act becomes operative on January 1, 2023.

36 “(2) The Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services may adopt rules
37 and take any other action before the operative date specified in subsection (1) of this section
38 that is necessary to enable the director to undertake and exercise all of the duties, functions
39 and powers conferred on the director by section 1 of this 2022 Act.

40 “SECTION 3. This 2022 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public
41 peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2022 Act takes effect 42 on its passage.”.
