

Submitter: Todd Bouma

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Human Services

Measure: HB4079

By creating a programs that incentivize the homeless to migrate to Oregon through free to them resources, why can't we think about longer term incentives that promote personal improvement. Giving free money to disadvantaged folks only teaches them to not improve their financial position for fear of losing the no strings free subsidies