It has by far excel my career.

Living here in pdx for about 6 years and achieving 4yrs in the entertainment this opportunity actually open doors.

Being afro-Indigenous

I was qualified but unknown.

Unrecognized and qualified. De platform.

This gave me the opportunity to make the connections I'll need to give back to my community.

I'm look forward to sharing that community intentionally with film .

The struggle of being taken seriously within metro Portland left me at crossroads.

Thank you
