Measure: HB4080

HB 4080 would create a permanent funding mechanism for agriculture businesses to pay for “county trappers” to kill native wildlife. Even worse, it would institutionalize Wildlife Services into Oregon law. This means the same rogue federal agency responsible for poisoning people and pets with cyanide would have easy access to more dollars to kill coyotes, foxes, black bears, raccoons and cougars. This is not aligned with Oregon’s values and I wholeheartedly oppose this bill.
