3 “SECTION 1. ORS 659A.370 is amended to read:

4 “659A.370. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) or (4) of this section, 5 it is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to enter into an 6 agreement with a former, current [an employee] or prospective employee, 7 as a condition of employment, continued employment, promotion, compen-8 sation or the receipt of benefits, that contains a nondisclosure provision, a 9 nondisparagement provision or any other provision that has the purpose or 10 effect of preventing the employee from disclosing or discussing conduct:

11 “(a)(A) That constitutes discrimination prohibited by ORS 659A.030, in-12 cluding conduct that constitutes sexual assault; or 13 “(B) That constitutes discrimination prohibited by ORS 659A.082 or 14 659A.112; and 15 “(b)(A) That occurred between employees or between an employer and an 16 employee in the workplace or at a work-related event that is off the em-17 ployment premises and coordinated by or through the employer; or

18 “(B) That occurred between an employer and an employee off the em-
19 ployment premises.

20 “[2) An employer may enter into a settlement, separation or severance 21 agreement that includes one or more of the following provisions only when an

1 employee claiming to be aggrieved by conduct described under subsection (1) 2 of this section requests to enter into the agreement:] (2)(a) Whenever an 3 employer and an employee enter into an agreement, the terms of 4 which release a claim brought against an employer by an employee 5 alleging the occurrence of unlawful conduct described in subsection 6 (1)(a) and (b) of this section, the agreement may include one or more 7 of the following provisions only when the employee who is a party to 8 the agreement requests the inclusion of such provisions in the agree- 9 ment:

10 “[a] (A) A provision described in subsection (1) of this section;

11 “[b] A provision that prevents the disclosure of factual information relating 12 to a claim of discrimination or conduct that constitutes sexual assault; or]

13 “(B) A provision that prevents the disclosure of the amount of or 14 fact of any settlement; or

15 “[c] (C) A no-rehire provision that prohibits the employee from seeking 16 reemployment with the employer as a term or condition of the agreement.

17 “(b) It is a violation of this subsection for an employer or former 18 employer to:

19 “(A) Make an offer of settlement conditional upon a request to in- 20 clude in the agreement the provisions described in paragraph (a) of 21 this subsection.

22 “(B) Fail to provide a person with whom the employer seeks to en- 23 ter into the agreement a copy of the policy described in ORS 659A.375.

24 “(3)(a) An agreement entered into under subsection (2) of this section 25 must provide that the employee has at least seven days after executing the 26 agreement to revoke the agreement.

27 “(b) The agreement may not become effective until after the revocation 28 period has expired.

29 “(4) The prohibitions under subsection (1) of this section do not ap- 30 ply to agreements entered into between an employer and an employee

1 if an employer makes a good faith determination that [an] the employee has 2 engaged in conduct prohibited by ORS 659A.030, including sexual assault, 3 conduct prohibited by ORS 659A.082 or 659A.112 or conduct prohibited by 4 this section[, the employer may enter into a settlement, separation or severance 5 agreement that includes one or more of the following provisions:]

6 “[(a) A provision described in subsection (1) of this section;]

7 “[(b) A provision that prevents the disclosure of factual information that 8 relates to a claim of discrimination or conduct that conduct that constitutes 9 sexual assault; or]

10 “[(c) A no-rehire provision that prohibits the employee from seeking reem-
11 ployment with the employer as a term or condition of the agreement].

12 “(5) An employee may file a complaint under ORS 659A.820 for violations
13 of this section and may bring a civil action under ORS 659A.885 and recover
14 a civil penalty of up to $5,000 and relief as provided by ORS 659A.885 (1) 15 to (3).

16 “(6) This section does not apply to an employee who is tasked by law to 17 receive confidential or privileged reports of discrimination, sexual assault 18 or harassment.

19 “(7) Except to the extent provided under subsections (2) and (4) of 20 this section, provisions included in an agreement in violation of this 21 section are void and unenforceable.

22 “(8) Nothing in this section prohibits an employer from enforcing 23 a nondisclosure or nondisparagement agreement that is unrelated to 24 the conduct described in subsection (1) of this section.

25 “[~~(7)~~] (9) As used in this section, ‘sexual assault’ means unwanted conduct 26 of a sexual nature that is inflicted upon a person or compelled through the 27 use of physical force, manipulation, threat or intimidation.

28 “SECTION 2. For purposes of mediation related to claims or 29 allegations of the unlawful conduct described under ORS 659A.375 30 (1)(a) and (b), a mediator in the mediation shall provide a person who

1 is a party to the mediation and who is not represented by an attorney 2 with a copy of the model procedures and policies made available by the 3 Bureau of Labor and Industries in the manner prescribed under ORS 4 659A.375.

5 “SECTION 3. ORS 659A.375 is amended to read:

6 “659A.375. (1) Every employer in this state shall adopt a written policy 7 containing procedures and practices for the reduction and prevention of dis-8 crimination prohibited by ORS 659A.030, including sexual assault, as defined 9 in ORS 659A.370, and discrimination prohibited by ORS 659A.082 and 10 659A.112.

11 “(2) At a minimum, the policy must:

12 “(a) Provide a process for an employee to report prohibited conduct;

13 “(b) Identify the individual designated by the employer who is responsible 14 for receiving reports of prohibited conduct, including an individual desig-15 nated as an alternate to receive such reports;

16 “(c) Include the statute of limitations period applicable to an employee’s 17 right of action for alleging unlawful conduct described in subsection (1) of 18 this section;

19 “(d) Include a statement that an employer may not require or coerce an 20 employee to enter into a nondisclosure or nondisparagement agreement, in-21 cluding a description of the meaning of those terms;

22 “(e) Include an explanation that an employee claiming to be aggrieved by 23 conduct described in subsection (1) of this section may voluntarily request 24 to enter into an agreement described in ORS 659A.370 (2), including a state-25 ment that explains that the employee has at least seven days to revoke the 26 agreement; and

27 “(f) Include a statement that advises employers and employees to docu-28 ment any incidents involving conduct prohibited by ORS 659A.030, including 29 sexual assault as defined in ORS 659A.370, or conduct prohibited by ORS 30 659A.082 and 659A.112.

1 “(3) An employer shall:

2 “(a) Make the policy available to employees within the workplace;

3 “(b) Provide a copy of the policy to each employee at the time of hire;

4 [and]

5 “(c) Provide to each person with whom the employer seeks to enter 6 into an agreement, as described in ORS 659A.370 (2), a copy of the 7 policy in the language the employer typically uses to communicate 8 with the person; and 9 “[c] (d) Require any individual who is designated by the employer to 10 receive complaints to provide a copy of the policy to an employee at the time 11 that the employee discloses information regarding prohibited discrimination 12 or harassment.

13 “(4) The Bureau of Labor and Industries shall make available on the 14 bureau’s website model procedures or policies that employers may use as 15 guidance to establish the policy described in this section.

16 “(5) Nothing in this section is intended to relieve an employer of liability 17 for engaging in conduct that is prohibited under ORS chapter 659A.

18 “SECTION 4. ORS 243.323 is amended to read:

19 “243.323. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) or (4) of this section, it 20 is an unlawful employment practice under ORS chapter 659A for a public 21 employer to enter into an agreement with a former, current [an employee] 22 or prospective employee, as a condition of employment, continued employ-23 ment, promotion, compensation or the receipt of benefits, that contains a 24 nondisclosure provision, a nondisparagement provision or any other pro-25 vision that has the purpose or effect of preventing the employee from dis-26 closing or discussing workplace harassment:

27 “(a) That occurred between employees or between an employer and an 28 employee in the workplace or at a work-related event that is off the em-29 ployment premises and coordinated by or through the employer; or

30 “(b) That occurred between an employer and an employee off the em-

1 ployment premises.

2 “~~(2)~~ A public employer may enter into a settlement, separation or severance 3 agreement that includes one or more of the following provisions only when an 4 employee claiming to be aggrieved by workplace harassment described under 5 subsection (1) of this section requests to enter into the agreement: When- 6 ever a public employer and an employee enter into an agreement, the 7 terms of which release a claim brought against the employer by an 8 employee alleging workplace harassment described under subsection 9 (1) of this section, the agreement may include one or more of the fol- 10 lowing provisions only when the employee who is a party to the 11 agreement requests the inclusion of such provisions in the agreement:

12 “(a) A provision described in subsection (1) of this section;

13 “[~~(b)~~ A provision that prevents the disclosure of factual information relating 14 to the claim of discrimination or conduct that constitutes sexual assault; or]

15 “(b) A provision that prevents the disclosure of the amount of or 16 fact of any settlement; or

17 “(c) A no-rehire provision that prohibits the employee from seeking re-18 employment with the employer as a term or condition of the agreement.

19 “(3)(a) An agreement entered into under subsection (2) of this section 20 must provide that the employee has at least seven days after executing the 21 agreement to revoke the agreement.

22 “(b) The agreement may not become effective until after the revocation 23 period has expired.

24 “(4) The prohibitions in subsection (1) of this section do not apply 25 to agreements entered into between a public employer and an em- 26 ployee if [an] the public employer makes a good faith determination that 27 [an] the employee has engaged in workplace harassment described under 28 subsection (1) of this section[, the employer may enter into a settlement, sep- 29 aration or severance agreement that includes one or more of the following 30 provisions:]

1 “[(a) A provision described in subsection (1) of this section;]

2 “[(b) A provision that prevents the disclosure of factual information that 3 relates to the workplace harassment; or]

4 “[(c) A no-rehire provision that prohibits the employee from seeking reem-5 ployment with the employer as a term or condition of the agreement].

6 “(5) An employee may file a complaint under ORS 659A.820 for violations
7 of this section and may bring a civil action under ORS 659A.885 and recover
8 a civil penalty of up to $5,000 and relief as provided by ORS 659A.885 (1) 9 to (3).

10 “(6) This section does not apply to an employee who is tasked by law to 11 receive confidential or privileged reports of discrimination, sexual assault 12 or harassment.

13 “(7) Except to the extent provided under subsections (2) and (4) of 14 this section, provisions included in an agreement in violation of this 15 section are void and unenforceable.

16 “(8) Nothing in this section prohibits a public employer from en-17 forcing a nondisclosure or nondisparagement agreement that is unre-18 lated to workplace harassment described in subsection (1) of this 19 section.

20 “SECTION 5. Section 6 of this 2022 Act is added to and made a part 21 of ORS 243.317 to 243.323.

22 “SECTION 6. For purposes of a mediation related to claims or 23 allegations of workplace harassment, a mediator in the mediation 24 shall provide a person who is a party to the mediation and who is not 25 represented by an attorney with a copy of the policy described in ORS 26 659A.375.

27 “SECTION 7. ORS 243.319 is amended to read:

28 “243.319. (1) A public employer shall establish and adopt a written policy 29 that seeks to prevent workplace harassment that occurs between employees 30 or between an employer and an employee in the workplace or at a work-

1 related event that is off the employment premises and coordinated by or 2 through the employer, or between an employer and an employee off the em-3 ployment premises.

4 “(2) The policy must include:

5 “(a) A statement prohibiting workplace harassment;

6 “(b) Information explaining that a victim of workplace harassment has a 7 right to seek redress through the employer’s internal process provided under 8 ORS 243.321, through the Bureau of Labor and Industries’ complaint resolu-
9 tion process under ORS 659A.820 to 659A.865 or under any other available 10 law, whether civil or criminal, including:

11 “(A) The timeline under which relief may be sought;

12 “(B) Any available administrative or judicial remedies; and 13 “(C) The advance notice of claim against a public body that a claimant 14 must provide as required under ORS 30.275;

15 “(c) A statement that a person who reports workplace harassment has the 16 right to be protected from retaliation;

17 “(d) A statement of the scope of the policy, including that the policy ap-18 plies to elected public officials, volunteers and interns;

19 “(e) An explanation that a victim of workplace harassment may volun-20 tarily disclose information regarding an incident of workplace harassment 21 that involves the victim;

22 “(f) Information to connect a victim of workplace harassment with legal 23 resources and counseling and support services, including any available em-24 ployee assistance services;

25 “(g) A statement that an employer may not require or coerce an employee 26 to enter into a nondisclosure or nondisparagement agreement, including a 27 description of the meaning of those terms;

28 “(h) An explanation that an employee claiming to be aggrieved by 29 workplace harassment may voluntarily request to enter into an agreement 30 described in ORS 243.323 (2), including a statement that explains that the 1 employee has at least seven days to revoke the agreement; and 2 “(i) A statement that advises employers and employees to document any 3 incidents of workplace harassment.

4 “(3) A public employer shall provide a copy of the policies described in 5 this section to each employee and shall include a copy of the policies in any 6 orientation materials that are provided to new employees at the time of hire.

7 “(4) If an employee discloses any concerns about workplace harassment 8 to a supervisor of the employer, or to a designated individual as described 9 in ORS 243.321 (3), the supervisor or designated individual shall, at the time 10 of the disclosure, provide to the employee a copy of the policy described in 11 this section.

12 “(5) A public employer shall provide to each person with whom the 13 employer seeks to enter into an agreement, as described under ORS 14 243.323 (2), a copy of the policies described in this section in the lan- 15 guage that the employer typically uses to communicate with the per- 16 son.

17 “[5] (6) A policy established under this section must comply with the 18 requirements for a written policy provided under ORS 659A.375.”.
