Implementation

Measure: SB1584

As an exonerated person, after 30 years to see an attempt to compensate me and the other 21 without holding those that lied to facilitate our false imprisonment, slavery and torture accountable is abhorrent.

I proved my innocence when I was tried the first time.

I proved that my accusers were then as now guilty of child rape and framing the innocent with the help of the state agents who facilitated the foster home of Allene Loveless.

Neil Goldschmidt tried to defeat and hinder investigation into that state run child rape ring.

The state has yet to clean up the mess that Goldschmidt made of the justice system.

I wish I could show how much damage to my daughter was done but I haven't seen her since the state kidnapped me.

I wish I could tell you how it affected my wife, but after the state failed to protect her as a foster child in the loveless foster home and helped them sexually abuse her and her daughter and frame her husband she lost any hope of getting a normal life let alone any justice.

They are victims that need to be made whole but it cannot be done

Time has shown me that qualified immunity and impunity from any accountability at the expense of the innocent is codified in law. What we need is a real reckoning of how we got to the place where it's acceptable.

I was diagnosed with CPTSD years ago.

I filed for disability and the state wouldn't pay for the harm done to me by the state.

Funny how that works.

I should tell you about getting the grand jury dissolved by holding the court accountable and showing how they lied to and endangered those who were serving on the jury.

That makes me responsible for a hostile work environment according to the judge.

Accountability and the rule of law mean nothing to those in power.

Do what you're gonna do and I'll sit back and watch you fall short and let unnecessary harm continue while offering solution and be ignored.

Y'all are lucky that I'm a peaceful person
