Presenters to be determined

Individuals with lived experience as children and youth in the legal or physical custody of Oregon Child Welfare

Any individual who experienced care as a child or youth in the Child Welfare System is welcome to offer comment in person or virtually about their experience or perspectives on child welfare issues. These individuals are also invited to submit written comment for the record. Oregon law protects the right of all children in care to freely speak publicly or privately about their experience in care and retaliation is prohibited.

Written testimony can be submitted here: SHS.exhibits@oregonlegislature.gov

To register to offer virtual testimony, you can register here:

Those offering testimony in person can also inform the committee staff in the hearing room that they are there and they will be invited to speak by the chair.

Please note this is limited to individuals who were or are currently served by the Oregon Child Welfare System as children or youth.

“It is the policy of this state that a child, ward or youth may not be prohibited from, disciplined for or retaliated against for publicly or privately speaking about the child, ward or youth’s experience receiving child welfare services.” ORS 418.203
