

I am urging the legislature to take action to remediate the negative impacts from measure 110. The current lawless, drug-infested streets of Portland are clearly not what was intended. We need services first to address mental health, addiction and homelessness - but in the meantime we need to be able to control dangerous activities and people.

Allowing open street use of heroin and fentanyl is not humane for anyone.