

By eliminating many of the consequences for hard drug use, M110 has helped create a lawless atmosphere in the Portland Metro area. Hard drug use has increased, drug-related crimes have increased, and overdose-related EMS calls are overwhelming the system. It's time to repeal M110 and start over. Our state needs a return to sanity regarding drug use and related crimes.

Sincerely,
Roger Payne
Oregon City resident and retiree