

BM 110 sounded great in theory. I voted for it in fact. But our rush to give agency to drug addled people in the streets was misguided. These are people that have demonstrated a predilection for making poor personal choices. And allowing easier access to the supply only makes it worse. These people need help in the form of treatment, which they virtually NEVER get under BM 110. Fix this issue NOW. Help these people NOW.

Joel Kellner

Portland