

The decriminalization of hard drugs should be reestablished to give the system a way to force people to either dry out for a length of time and get a psychiatric evaluation and/or to seek help. We should keep funding mental health.

Chris Browne 503 281 0077