Employment Related Day Care (ERDC) 2023-2024 Timeline

January 2023

- Expanded student eligibility takes effect (HB 3073)
- Switched to part-time/full-time child care authorizations (HB 3073)
- Expanded authorized medical leave takes effect (HB 3073)
- Added sleep hours for two-caretaker households (HB 3073)

June 2023

 DELC confirms with LFO that additional funds will be needed to support expanded eligibility and ERDC policy changes

July 2023 ERDC moves from

ODHS to DELC

• TANF child care ends and families receiving TANF become eligible for ERDC

August 2023

- DELC collaborates with other states to identifywaitlist best practices
- ODHS begins preparations to launch first waitlist since switch to the ONE Eligibility system

September 2023

• ODHS/ONE team begin testing waitlist system functionality

October 2023

- OEP trains eligibility workers, family coaches, support staff, call centers, and child welfare workers on how to implement the waitlist effectively
- DELC trains staff and partners on how to support families and providers in understanding and navigating the waitlist

November 2023

• DELC presents latest budget shortfall projections based on October data

December 2023

January 2024

 DELC presents latest budget shortfall projections based on December data, including new waitlist data