

I am writing to express my opposition to this. Oregonians are already taxed way too much. I am not suggesting nothing should be done about the issue of traffic congestion. I am saying that Oregon does not have a revenue problem. Oregon has a spending problem. You need to stop the runaway spending and you will have plenty of money to fix the issue of traffic congestion.

David Brown
Professional Accounting and Consulting Services