HYSTER

A blue Toyota Mirai is parked at a hydrogen fueling station. A man in a white shirt is standing next to the station. The car is a sleek, futuristic sedan with a prominent front grille and large wheels. The station has a sign that says "Hydrogen". The scene is set outdoors with trees and a clear sky.

CALIFORNIA INFRASTRUCTURE

Toyota has limited our Mirai sales because of insufficient infrastructure:

1. No plans for future station builds
2. Unreliable network (next slide)
