

Hello,

We need to look at ridership and eliminate waste in our transit systems. There are constantly busses that are only half full. Maybe run more smaller size busses during non busy times of the day. Maybe create a public ride share system to compete with private companies.

We need to invest and make transit safe so people want to use it.

Thanks for taking comments! Hope some good ideas come in :)

-Craig