

Yes ,yes ,yes we need more public transit, as our population ages and more people are no longer allowed to drive we need a higher level of connections so that the service needs are met for seniors, children before driving, an honored citizens. We need a safer transit system too, I don't worry too much about writing during the day but I'd like to see more of a presence on the buses and on the platforms.