

I am herein submitting my testimony re Oregon & Portland's transportation system reform: Far better mass transit urgently needs to be invested in. In addition, the last thing the state needs is wider highways as it's well known that these only cause more traffic & they totally unjustly displace people & their homes.

Thank you for your attention,
Jynx Houston