

The planet is heating up. Natural disasters are more frequent and intense. So stop spending on car infrastructure and get moving on public transit.

Trains instead of planes

Rapid reliable and safe public transportation

Demolishing freeways within cities

Halt the Rose Quarter project

Ferry routes crossing rivers

Remove from office those who don't get it

Be bold

Sincerely and urgently,

Kathryn Midson