

Hi -

I am writing to share my feedback on the upcoming transportation bill. As a parent, I urge legislators to prioritize safe routes to school funding. This investments are so critical in helping families balance time, commutes, and the joy of walking/biking to school. Safe streets are often the leading barrier to having more kids walk and bike to school.

Kind regards,
Timur Ender