

Joint Committee on Transportation members,

As ash rains down on Bend tonight I implore you to craft the greenest transportation system possible.

Safety and conservation should be your primary concern. Invest in protections for the most vulnerable road users and support reduction of vehicle miles traveled. Consider air pollution, climate change, and other hidden costs.

It's important that people most impacted by a decision have real power to shape it.

Thank you,
Connie Peterson