

Joint Committee on Transportation members,

You have an opportunity to create the greenest transportation system possible. This can be done by putting safety first by investing in protections for the most vulnerable road users and reducing our vehicle miles traveled, air pollution and other hidden costs to public health. For accountability to diverse voices, ensure people most impacted by a decision have real power to shape it.

Thank you,
Joseph Craig