

Submitted testimony from Eileen Stark, Portland below the line:

---

As a biologist and Oregonian, I want Oregon to make major investments in public transit, passenger rail, safe bikeways, pothole patches, and fixes to seismically vulnerable bridges, NOT continue to spend billions on highway widening projects which will make climate chaos much worse and pollute the planet with toxic chemicals.