

Submitted testimony from Jynx Houston, Portland below the line:

---

Portland & Oregon-at-large desperately needs to invest in mass transit, street safety, high-speed rail, & making our streets smooth again. Pouring money into widening highways is a very stupid & harmful move that is causing an increasing number of voters to have very little trust in our state government's wisdom & intelligence.