

Please be careful to not install anything super glaring light-wise. I noticed you had done this at Gateway - the overhead lights I saw when coming from the airport made it hard to look out the window - there is no reason to install lights that bright. Thanks!