

Submitted testimony from Leslie Poston, Portland below the line:

MORE TRANSIT. More MAX trains to more places. More bus services. We don't need to widen the freeway at all. It's well known and well studied that doing that would increase pollution in an already struggling area and only serve to make traffic worse.