

I am a longtime resident of Portland who uses a bicycle and TriMet bus as my primary means of transportation. I advocate making investments in public transit, passenger rail, safe routes to school, bike lanes, sidewalks, crosswalks, patches to potholes and fixes to seismically vulnerable bridges. Please prioritize these pressing needs. Do NOT continue to spend billions on highway widening projects, polluting the air and the planet while robbing us of the money we need to fix roads across Oregon.