

I fully support a robust budget for Trimet. Expansion of lines and lower prices will increase ridership. Enhanced security to deal with problem riders would improve the non rider image of Trimet. The changes require funding. Move the funds from the ridiculous I5 expansion. The planet will be happier.