

I believe the public deserves more options for public transportation but when majority of transportation is spent in the greater Portland Metro area. And being one who has to pay the tax for a service I can't use because I don't live in the greater Portland Metro area. Make it more assessable for more than already being served.

Gail Franson