

Above all, I would like to see priority given to safety for all using our streets, particularly bikers and pedestrians, improved infrastructure to make streets safer, and maintenance to keep them that way. Vehicle traffic needs to be slowed way down to increase safety for all. Money poured into more freeways that are not affordable and soon too congested themselves would also be better put to supporting and upgrading affordable public transit that gets more cars off the roads.