

I urge you to prioritize transportation funding for transit, sidewalks and crosswalks, local road resurfacing/repair, jurisdictional transfer of orphan highways (read: Powell Blvd.), passenger rail (preferably electric), and fixing seismically vulnerable infrastructure.

If there's a plan to make use of federal funds to heal Albina and rationalize the traffic patterns there without widening the interstate, that deserves State funding as well.