

I support climate safe, fiscally responsible energy efficient transportation through better development, support, and use of mass transit, and low impact transportation (walking and cycling).

Building a wider freeway does not support those goals.